

Full-time P-12 School Chaplain

Scone Grammar School, Upper Hunter NSW

Scone Grammar School is looking for a Full-Time P-12 School Chaplain to join our dynamic team commencing 24 January 2022. The successful candidate will be able to teach Christian Studies across the Primary and Secondary Years, lead chapel services and lead our 'Cross Trainers' – our Christian youth group within SGS.

What are the benefits?

Our team are the heart of what we do here at Scone Grammar School and Newcastle Anglican Schools Corporation. As a part of our organisation, you have access to the following great benefits:

- Generous salary and salary packaging options!
- Career and professional development opportunities
- The opportunity to work within an innovative, collaborative team environment

About us

Scone Grammar School (SGS) is an Anglican Co-Educational School for positive, flourishing learners from Preschool to Year 12. Based in the Upper Hunter, our Christian faith and values lay a safe, caring foundation.

Skills and Abilities:

- A willingness to teach Christian Studies across the primary and secondary years.
- An ability to plan, prepare and deliver quality learning experiences.
- Active listening skills and the ability to engage with and builds strong positive relationships with members of the school community including employees, students and parents.
- An ability to create a dynamic and inclusive learning environment to engage and support diverse students.
- Well-developed organisational skills; excellent written and verbal communication skills; the ability to work well in a team, as well as the ability to work independently.
- An ability to maintain student records and samples of work and report on student performance to students, parents and other stakeholders as required.
- A willingness to participate in the collaborative development and evaluation of the curriculum and regularly monitor, through observation and evaluation, the effectiveness of the teaching program.

- An ability to create dynamic and engaging programs that include a multitude of ICT opportunities for student learning.
- A willingness to participate in co-curricular activities, school decision making processes and professional development.

Essential Criteria:

- A Bachelor of Theology or Education, or otherwise an Advanced Diploma in Theology or Ministry would be acceptable.
- A deep passion for the gospel of Jesus Christ and the emerging generation.
- Experience in dynamic church and school-based ministry to children and families.
- Desire to work as part of a team, both within school and with the local parish to expand opportunities for students to grow their faith.
- Skill in the oversight, and development of leaders.
- Vision-driven and action-oriented, with a desire to achieve.
- Capacity and experience in teaching Christian Studies.
- Experienced or graduate teachers are encouraged to apply for this role.
- A valid NSW Working with Children Check.
- Commitment to the education and wellbeing of young people.

The successful applicant will be committed to our school values and proactively contribute to our SGS team. Applicants will be screened for appropriate child protection purposes as we are a Child Safe School

If this sounds like you, please APPLY TODAY! For more information, or to have a confidential discussion about this role please contact Mrs Sarah Ambry, Principal's Executive Assistant (EA) – sambry@sgs.nsw.edu.au or (02) 6545 3131.

Please address your application to The Principal and email to Mrs Sarah Ambry.

Applications will be closing Friday 16 December 2022.

You must have the right to live and work in Australia. Newcastle Anglican Schools Corporation supports the rights of children and young people and are committed to ensuring the safety, welfare, and wellbeing of students.